1.0 HOW DO I PARTICIPATE IN MIDDLE SCHOOL ADMISSIONS?

Receiving My Application

In order to participate in Middle School Admissions, you must submit a Middle School Application by Thursday, December 1, 2016. The application will be personalized for your child and includes all of the middle school programs to which your child may apply.

If your child is eligible for any new NYC Department of Education schools or programs, you will be invited through your child's guidance counselor to apply to these programs in February. Applying is optional. If your child receives a match to a new school or program, you will have to choose between your new school match and your main round match.

A match means the student has received a placement in that program for the following school year. Most students are matched to one of the programs ranked on their Middle School Application, although it is not guaranteed. If your child does not match to one of the programs ranked on his or her application, s/he will receive a placement in a school where s/he is eligible to attend middle school. This could be either: (1) a school in the district to which s/he is zoned to attend middle school or, when different, (2) the district where s/he attends public elementary school.

What happens if my child is not currently enrolled at a New York City public school?

Students not currently enrolled in a New York City public school—which means students currently attending a private or parochial school or new to New York City—will need to request an application for the district in which they live from a Family Welcome Center. When you request an application, provide the Family Welcome Center with a 2016 report card from your child's school with grades, attendance, and academic and personal behavior competencies so that they may be included as part of the admissions process.

Private and parochial students are eligible to attend middle school in the district in which they are zoned for middle school or any programs open to their borough or New York City.

Completing My Application

All New York City public elementary school fifth graders receive a personalized application from their current school in November. This application will contain information about the student and will list all of the middle schools to which that student may apply.

To complete your child's Middle School Application, you will need to review parts 1, 2, and 3, rank schools in part 5, and sign and date the application in part 6.

Ranking Your Programs

In part 5 of the application, you will rank all of the middle school programs your child is interested in attending, in your order of preference. You should rank the program you most want your child to attend with a “1”; your second choice with a “2”; and so on. You may rank up to 12 programs on your application. Do not write in other programs because they will not be considered.

5 MIDDLE SCHOOL OPTIONS

Parent/Student: Please read the instructions below carefully before completing your application.

This “1” means that this is the program the student is most interested in attending.

Choice Number	District	Program Code	School Name/Program Name
2	1	M378L	School for Global Leaders
3	21	K239CM	Mark Twain (I.S. 239) Magnet Program - Computer/Math

School Location and Transportation

It is important to consider where schools are located in relation to your home. In section 6.1 "District Middle School Map," there is a map that shows the location of all the middle schools in this district. The map includes all middle schools in the district, including middle schools that you would apply to through Middle School Admissions, charter schools that have a separate admissions process, and schools that require a school-based application, if applicable. Research your child's train and bus route options for schools of interest.

For a summary of student transportation, please see section 5.7 "Student Transportation."

2.2 School Performance

Use this section to compare the performance statistics for each school and think about how they will help your child meet his or her goals:

The school performance section contains the following for each school:

- Course and Test Results: The percentage of students who passed courses in the core subjects (English, math, social studies, and science), and the percentage of sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students who scored at Level 3 or 4 on the New York State English and Math tests.

- Most Commonly Attended High Schools: The NYC Department of Education high schools most commonly attended by last year’s graduates of this school, and the percentage of graduates who attend each.
- School Survey Results: The percentage of students who feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria as reported on the NYC School Survey.

For more information on school performance, see section 5.2 “Accountability.”

3.0 HOW ARE MIDDLE SCHOOL MATCHES MADE?

Your child will be matched to his/her highest possible program choice based on the following:

- Your Program Choices: The order in which you rank programs on the application. (See section 3.1)
- Admissions Priorities: The order in which applicants are considered for placement. A program that gives preference to zoned students is an example of an Admissions Priority. (See section 3.2)
- Admissions Methods: The way schools consider and admit applicants. A program that screens students is an example of an Admissions Method. (See section 3.3)
- Seats: The number of seats offered at each program. (See section 3.4)

3.1 Your Program Choices

Rank up to 12 choices in order of preference. Students will be matched to their highest possible choice taking into consideration Admissions Priorities, Admissions Methods, and seats.

When you fill out the Middle School Application, you are not just applying to schools, you are applying to programs.

- You can think of programs as “doorways” through which schools accept students.
- If a school has multiple programs, eligible students may apply to one program or more than one program at that school.
- Programs at the same school may have different Admissions Priorities and Admissions Methods. You may decide to apply to one program over another based on its admissions or because it has a particular theme.

Note: Screened programs in Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 13, and 14 will see how you rank them, which may affect your application choices. See section 6.0 “Specific Information for This District” to learn if this applies to you.

Zoned Students: Students who are zoned to a middle school—or a campus containing multiple middle schools—have priority to attend that school or schools. To receive this priority, you must rank your child’s zoned school(s) on the Middle School Application. You do not need to rank your child’s zoned school(s) as your first choice to receive the priority. You should, however, rank your programs in the order that you’d like your child to be considered for them.

Students in Continuing K-8 Schools: Students are guaranteed to match with their continuing school if they place it on their application. Students will first be considered for programs they rank higher on their application. You do not need to rank your child’s continuing school as your first choice to receive the guarantee.

3.2 Admissions Priorities

Admissions Priorities determine the order in which applicants are considered for placement in a middle school program. If a program has multiple Admissions Priorities, students who fall into the first priority group will be considered for placement first. Students who fall into higher priority groups have a better chance of getting into a particular program than students who fall into lower priority groups. Schools with multiple middle school programs may have different Admissions Priorities for those programs, so be sure to review carefully the “Program Admissions” section on school pages.

Admissions Priorities

PROGRAM ADMISSIONS			Prior Year Admissions
Program Name	Code	Admissions Method	Type	Applicants	Seats	Applicants Per Seat	Seats Filled
(I.S. 123) Academic Honors Program	A123S	Screened	GE	225	55	4	Y
			SWD	75	18	4	Y
Eligibility: Open to students and residents of Brooklyn Admissions Priorities: ❶ Priority to students and residents of the District ❷ Then to students and residents of Brooklyn. Last year, this program admitted students from all priority groups. Selection Criteria: Academic and Personal Behaviors ■ Attendance ■ Final 4th Grade Report Card ■ Punctuality ■ 4th Grade New York State ELA and Math Exams
(I.S. 123) Zoned Program	A123Z	Zoned	Zoned
Eligibility: Open to students residing in the zone

This means that priority group 1 is all students and residents of the district who ranked this program on their applications. These students will be considered before priority group 2, which is all Brooklyn students or residents who ranked this program on their application.

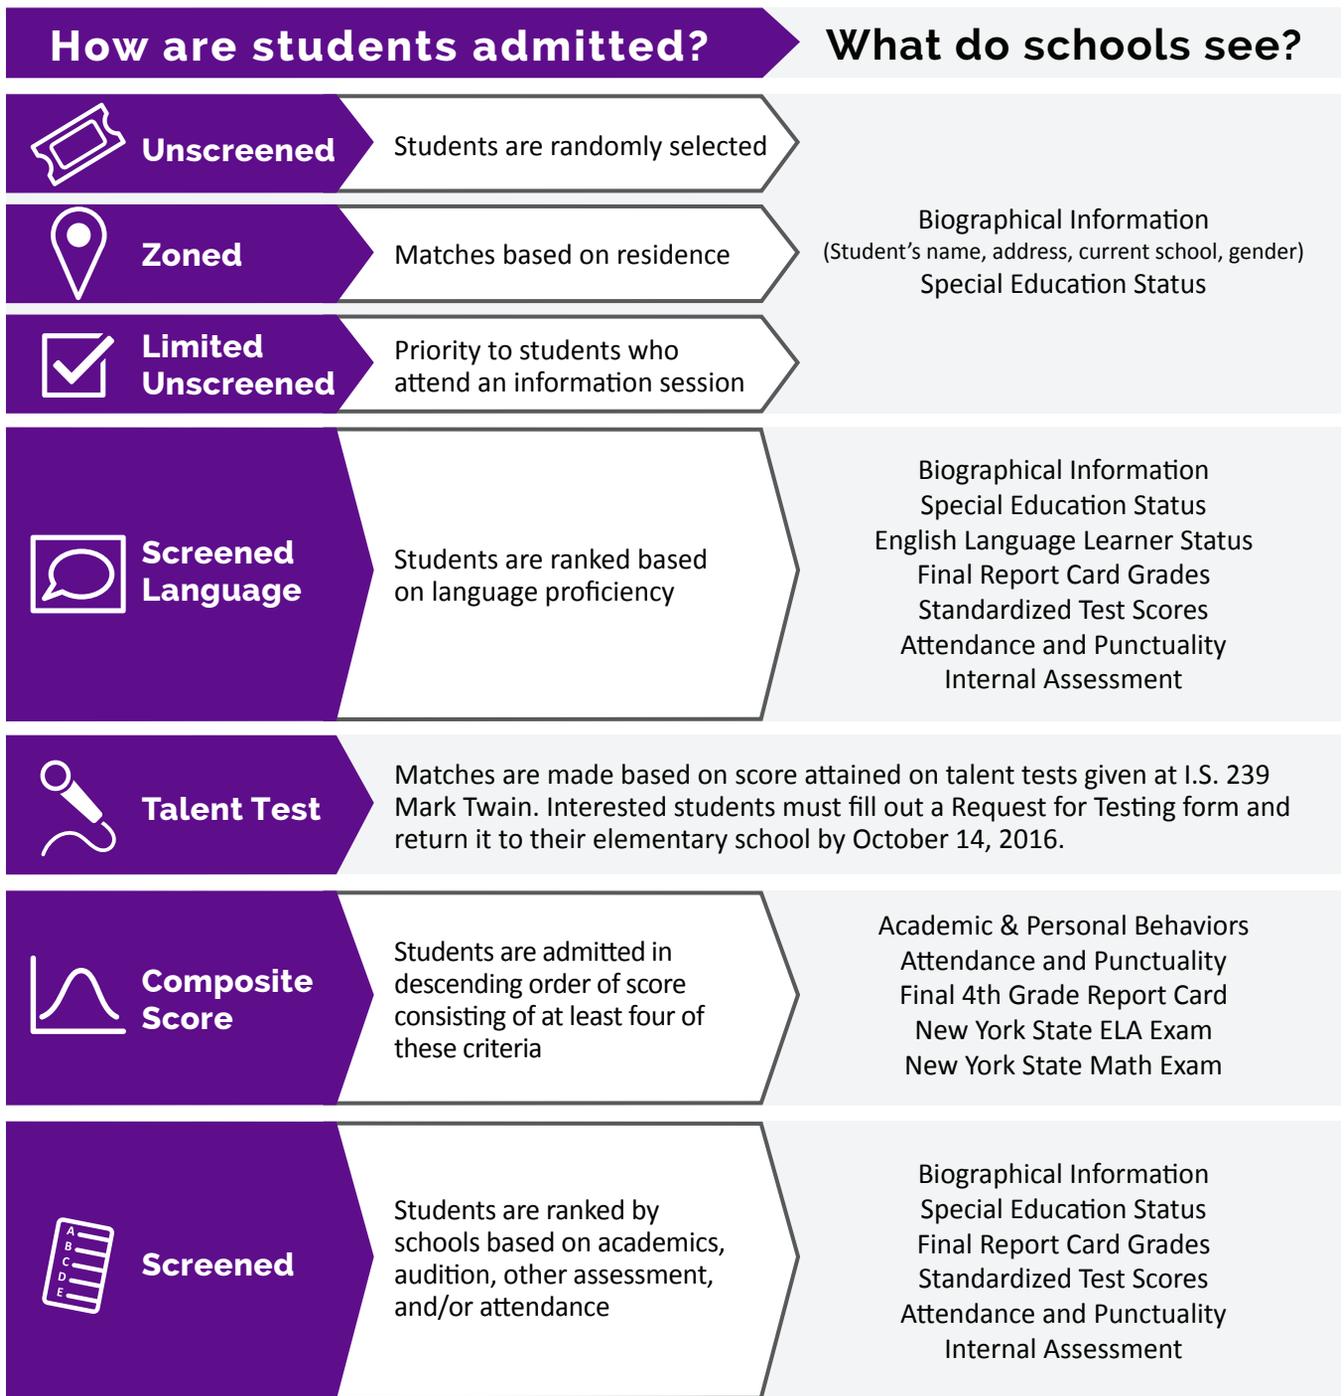

This also tells us that last year, applicants from both groups were matched with this program. This illustration shows what the Admissions Priorities look like for the program above:

Here are common Admissions Priorities used to determine matches:

What you will see in the directory	What it means
“Priority to continuing 5th graders”	Means that Continuing Fifth Graders Priority: Students who are already enrolled at a K-8 school and who list their school on their application will have priority over other applicants.
“Priority to students and residents of the District”	Means that Geographic Priority: Students may have priority based on the district, borough, or geographic area in which they live and/or go to school. (If a student lives and goes to school in different boroughs or districts, that student has priority in both places.)
“Priority to New York City residents who attend an information session”	Means that Limited Unscreened Priority: Students who signed in at a program’s open house or at the school’s table at a fair are put in a higher priority group. (This happens at programs that use a “Limited Unscreened” Admissions Method.)
“Priority to students who apply and live in the zoned area.”	Means that Zoned Priority: Students who live in a certain area will have priority. To find out if you live in a zoned area, check your application or visit schools.nyc.gov/SchoolSearch

The Types of MIDDLE SCHOOL ADMISSIONS METHODS

3.3 Admissions Methods

Admissions Methods are the ways in which middle school applicants are admitted into programs. The seven types of Admissions Methods are explained in more detail below:

Admissions Method

PROGRAM ADMISSIONS			Prior Year Admissions
Program Name	Code	Admissions Method	Type	Applicants	Seats	Applicants Per Seat	Seats Filled
(I.S. 123) Academic Honors Program	A123S	Screened	GE	225	55	4	Y
			SWD	75	18	4	Y
Eligibility: Open to students and residents of Brooklyn Admissions Priorities: ❶ Priority to students and residents of the District ❷ Then to students and residents of Brooklyn. Last year, this program admitted students from all priority groups. Selection Criteria: Academic and Personal Behaviors ■ Attendance ■ Final 4th Grade Report Card ■ Punctuality ■ 4th Grade New York State ELA and Math Exams
(I.S. 123) Zoned Program	A123Z	Zoned			Zoned
Eligibility: Open to students residing in the zone

Selection Criteria

Admissions Methods that DO NOT see your child’s academic information

Unscreened: In Unscreened programs, students who apply are randomly selected. If there are priority groups within an Unscreened program, students will be selected randomly within those priority groups.

Limited Unscreened: In Limited Unscreened programs, students are selected randomly with priority to students who demonstrate interest in the school by attending an information session, school tour, open house event, or by visiting the school’s table at the Middle School Fair. You must sign in at one of these events to receive priority to the school’s Limited Unscreened program(s).

Zoned: Zoned programs are open to students who live in the geographic zoned area of the middle school. To find out if your child is zoned to one or more middle schools, please visit schools.nyc.gov/schoolsearch or check your Middle School Application.

Talent Test: Talent Test programs base admission on a student’s exam performance in specified talent areas. Talent Test programs are found at several District 21 schools, including I.S. 239 Mark Twain, which is open to all NYC residents. Testing details are listed on Talent Test schools’ directory pages.

Admissions Methods that DO see your child’s academic information

Screened: Screened programs rank applicants using factors that may include final report card grades from the prior school year, reading and math standardized test scores, and attendance and punctuality. Some Screened programs have additional requirements like an interview, audition, writing sample, and/or diagnostic test. If you have any questions, contact the individual schools for more information.*

Screened: Language: Screened: Language programs use home/native language as the basis for admission. Interested students should review the program admissions to make sure they are applying to a program that matches their home/native language. Some Screened: Language programs may give priority to ELLs, participants of elementary school-level Dual Language and Transitional Bilingual Education programs in the target language, and/or heritage speakers of the target language. For more information on ELL models, please see section 5.5 “English Language Learners.”*

Composite Score: Composite score programs base admission on a combination of factors used to create one score for each student. Students are then placed in descending order based on their composite score and where the student ranked the program on their application. Composite score programs use a combination of academic and personal and behavioral characteristics.*

*Please note that, consistent with New York State law, state ELA and Mathematics test results will not be the sole, primary, or major factor in admissions decisions. Instead, multiple measures, which may include state test results, will be used to make admissions decisions for all Screened, Screened: Language, and Composite Score programs.

Selection Criteria describe the factors that determine how students match with a program. For Screened, and Screened: Language programs, the selection criteria describe what the school considers when ranking applicants. For Composite Score programs, the selection criteria describe what information is used to create each student's composite score.

Selection Criteria for Screened and Composite Score programs might include the following:

- Final 4th Grade Report Card
- 4th Grade State ELA and Math Tests
- Attendance and Punctuality From 4th Grade
- Academic and Personal Behaviors From 4th Grade

Academic and Personal Behaviors are a part of the fourth grade report card. Schools evaluate these behaviors along with the academic courses. The specific behaviors evaluated are:

- Manages time and consistently demonstrates effort to independently achieve goals
- Works in an organized manner
- Persists through challenges to complete a task by trying different strategies
- Asks for help when needed
- Respects school rules and works well in the school community

If a school is not evaluating these behaviors as a part of the report card, school staff will provide this information on the student's behavior in the fourth grade so that all students have the same information available for evaluation.

Fourth-Grade Information

Middle School Admissions uses information from the fourth grade to evaluate students for admission. School staff should not ask families to provide extra information in the form of report cards from additional years or separate recommendations from teachers.

3.4 Seats

Review the number of available seats in a program and the number of applicants for those seats during the prior year admissions. The number of applicants per seat will affect your chance of being matched. Programs that filled all seats in the Main Round are marked with a "Y."

Each middle school program has a specific number of available seats for incoming students. Available seats are divided into two groups:

- One group of seats is reserved for students who are part of the general education population and students who receive special education instructional programming for 20% or less of their academic program (GE).
- The second group of seats is reserved for students who receive special education instructional programming for more than 20% of their academic program (SWD).

Student applications will automatically be assigned to one group of seats. For students with disabilities, this is based on the services they are currently receiving according to their Individualized Education Program (IEP). The number of available seats in each group is based on the percentage of students with disabilities receiving services in fifth grade in that school's district.

Seats are used for admissions purposes only; all students with IEPs will receive the services listed on their IEPs. The number of available seats for each group of students in the prior year is shown next to each program.

Many middle schools offer open house/school tour events where you and your child can see the school, meet staff members, and ask questions. Before you visit, prepare a list of questions for school staff about the school's culture, course offerings, and activities. You can also use the "Asking Questions at Middle School Events" activity on the next page. For information about school open houses/school tours, please contact middle schools of interest directly.

School Visits: When visiting schools, always sign in clearly because some programs will use this to move you to a higher priority group.

Stop & Learn This is the end of section 4.0 "How Do I Learn More About Schools and Programs?" Complete the activity "Asking Questions at Middle School Events" before you move onto the next section.

5.1 Accessibility

The Department of Education is committed to ensuring that its programs, services, and activities are accessible to staff, members of the school community, students, and family members with disabilities. The Department of Education assesses its buildings on a continuing basis to determine which schools are accessible to individuals with disabilities.

Accessible Schools are located in a fully or partially accessible building where an individual with mobility impairment may enter and access all relevant programs and services, including the science laboratory, library, cafeteria, and the gymnasium; in some cases, school programs may need to be re-located to accommodate access. At least one restroom is accessible. For the most up-to-date information on the accessibility of each school, please contact the school directly. Families are encouraged to visit schools to learn about the level of accessibility. For more information, please visit schools.nyc.gov/Offices/OSP/Accessibility.

5.2 Accountability

The New York City Department of Education collects information about school practices and student outcomes, which can help identify each school's strengths and areas for improvement. This directory contains some of this information, which is listed on school pages and explained in more detail below. If you have questions about this section, please speak to your school's guidance counselor or visit schools.nyc.gov/accountability, where you can find detailed information on each school's performance in their School Quality Reports. Average performance data for schools in this district during the 2014-2015 school year can be found in section 6.0 "Specific Information for This District".

The school performance section contains the following for each school:

- Course and Test Results: The percentage of students who passed courses in the core subjects (English, math, social studies, and science), and the percentage of sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students who scored at Level 3 or 4 on the New York State English and Math tests.
- Most Commonly Attended High Schools: The NYC Department of Education high schools most commonly attended by last year's graduates of this school, and the percentage of graduates who attend each.
- School Survey Results: The percentage of students who feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria as reported on the NYC School Survey.

5.3 Charter Schools

Charter schools are independent public schools founded by not-for-profit Boards of Trustees that operate under a contract or “charter” of up to five years. Many charter schools have unique educational approaches that may include longer school days, a longer school year, and/or thematic programs. Any student eligible for admission to a New York City public school is eligible for admission to a public charter school.

Please note that applying to a charter school does not guarantee placement. If the number of applicants exceeds the number of available seats at a charter school, the charter school must conduct a lottery to determine admissions. Interested students or families should contact each charter school directly to receive specific information about the school’s application process.

If you are interested in applying to a NYC charter school, you can apply to a school directly (visit the charter school’s website for details), or you can apply to multiple charter schools at once using the online Common Charter School Application, which can be found at: www.nyccharterschools.org/apply.

For a list of charter schools, please refer to the back of this directory. Visit schools.nyc.gov/charters or call 212-374-5419 for more information about charter schools in New York City. For information about specific charter schools, contact the schools directly.

5.4 Community Schools

Community Schools offer an integrated focus on academics, health and mental health services, youth development, expanded learning opportunities (inclusive of after-school and summer enrichment activities), and family and community supports to ensure that students are ready and able to learn, and graduate college and career ready. Each community school serves as a hub where parents and family members, community-based partners, community members, and school staff come together to coordinate and integrate a range of supports based on the assets and needs of individual students.

5.5 English Language Learners

English Language Learners (ELLs) may apply to any of the programs listed in this directory. All New York City Department of Education schools provide a range of supports and services for ELL students to develop their English proficiency and prepare them for success in school, college, and/or careers.

There are three different ELL service delivery models offered in New York City public middle schools:

Program	Definition
English as a New Language (ENL)	English as a New Language programs, which used to be called English as a Second Language or ESL, provide instruction in English with support in the students' home language so that they can learn to read, write, and speak English. Students in this program can come from many different language backgrounds, and English may be the only common language among them.
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE)	Transitional Bilingual Education programs provide reading, writing, and other classes in English and in your child's home language. As students' English improves, time spent learning in English increases and time spent learning in the home language decreases. Once your child is no longer identified as an English Language Learner, he or she will exit the program.
Dual Language (DL)	In Dual Language programs, students are taught in two languages: English and their home language, such as Spanish, Chinese, or French, among others. The goal of this program is for students to be able to read, write, and speak in both English and their home language. In Dual Language classes, the home language and English are used equally.

- 3.0
- 4.0
- 5.0
- 6.0

This directory indicates which of the ELL service delivery models above are currently offered in each middle school, based on school reported data.

All middle schools must provide the ELL Parent Survey and Program Selection Form at the parent orientation meeting which is offered to all newly-identified ELLs. If you do not receive this form, please request it from the school. You may use the form to indicate your preferred ELL service delivery model, even if your middle school does not currently offer it. Middle schools will be identified for a Dual Language or Transitional Bilingual Education program when there are 20 or more ELLs with the same native language in any single grade whose parents/guardians request either Dual Language or Transitional Bilingual Education. In this way, parents can influence which ELL service delivery models are offered in their child's school.

For the most up-to-date information regarding ELL service delivery models, please contact schools directly. For more information about services and supports for English Language Learners (ELLs), please call 212-323-9559, email ellfamilies@schools.nyc.gov, or visit the Division of English Language Learners and Student Support website: nyc.gov/schools/Academics/ELL.

5.6 Special Education Services

Students with disabilities may apply to all schools and/or programs listed in this directory, including all Screened and Audition programs, and are subject to the same admissions requirements as their general education peers. If the student's IEP contains testing accommodations, those accommodations will be provided when the student tests or auditions as long as they do not change what the test is measuring.

Every middle school participating in Middle School Admissions is expected to welcome and serve students with disabilities in accordance with their IEPs. The IEP team at the middle school will review the IEP to ensure that all services and supports are in place. In some cases, the IEP team may need to refine the IEP to better meet student needs.

Middle school programs have a group of seats for students whose IEPs specify special education instructional programming for more than 20% of their academic program. Special education instructional programming includes Integrated Co-Teaching (ICT) classes, Special Class (SC), and Special Education Teacher Support Services (SETSS). Related Services, such as speech, occupational therapy (OT), and physical therapy (PT), are not considered special education instructional programming for the purposes of Middle School Admissions. Seats are used for admissions purposes only; all students with IEPs will receive the services listed on their IEPs.

Students with disabilities who are recommended for and who have attended a District 75 program and are considering a middle school outside of District 75 should work with their IEP team to determine whether the recommendation for District 75 for middle school is still appropriate. If the student's IEP team determines that the student no longer needs District 75, then the student participates in Middle School Admissions. Students whose IEPs recommend a District 75 program and whose IEP team determines that the student will continue in a District 75 program for middle school are not required to participate in Middle School Admissions. These students are notified of their middle school placement in May or June by their District 75 schools. For more information, visit schools.nyc.gov/Academics/SpecialEducation.

5.7 Student Transportation

The New York City Department of Education offers transportation to middle school students based on these criteria:

- Students in sixth grade are provided with free transportation if they live one mile or more from the school; if they live closer than that but more than ½ mile from the school, a half-fare MTA bus pass is available on request from their school. Free transportation is provided as either a yellow bus or a MetroCard. Students receive yellow busing if (i) their school has bus service, (ii) they live in the same school district as their school, and (iii) if a stop exists, or can be created. Stops cannot be created if they make the existing route longer than five miles, as measured through each stop to the school.
- Students in seventh grade and above are provided with MetroCards if they live 1½ miles or more from school. If they live closer than that but more than ½ mile from school, a half-fare MTA bus pass is available on request from their school.
- Students receiving special education services who are mandated to receive specialized transportation on their most recent IEP are placed on bus routes to and from the school they attend. In addition, parents may request additional medical accommodations based on their child's special needs which may also affect the type of vehicle or route on which the student is placed. For more information about transportation, call the Office of Pupil Transportation at 718-392-8855 or visit schools.nyc.gov/offices/transportation.

6.0 Specific Information for District 12

In this district, one of the middle school zones has multiple smaller schools serving the zoned students. If students apply to all of the schools in the zone, and do not match to a higher choice, they will have a placement in one of them. However, if students apply to only one of the schools in the zone, placement in the zone is not guaranteed. The schools that share a zone are 12X098 and 12X190.

What is the performance of a typical District 12 middle school?

86%	of students passed core classes
11%	of students were proficient on the State English Test
13%	of students were proficient on the State Math Test
81%	of students feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria

We are a collaborative school community dedicated to improving our students’ academic performance while fostering their physical, social, and emotional growth. We provide a nurturing environment, and to address the needs of each student we offer standard instruction as well as data-driven instruction. Through continued collaboration with parents, administrators, staff, and community based organizations, we prepare every student to meet the needs of an ever-changing society. We envision that each student values education, holds high personal and educational expectations, is accountable for his or her learning, communicates effectively, excels in all areas, connects school and real-life situations, and develops into a lifelong learner. To maintain an environment that is safe and conducive to learning, we implement the Positive Behavioral Intervention and Supports (PBIS) and The Leader in Me programs. By developing well-rounded students, we help them unleash their individual worth and potential to lead their own lives.

Since our doors opened in 1969, generations of students, including some of our current teachers, have grown and developed in our classrooms. As we serve pre-k to eighth grade, a majority of our students stay in the school for over nine years. We offer a wide curriculum alongside an extensive Sports Program and an Arts Program that includes Encores!, a program at New York City Center which has affiliations with various museums in New York City (including The Mount Vernon Hotel Museum & Garden) as well as out-of-state (Plimoth Plantation in Massachusetts). Additionally, we have a strong partnership with the New York Botanical Garden. We are a bilingual school committed to providing high quality education to all students by meeting their emotional, social, and educational needs. We are also proud of our association with the Children’s Aid Society.

At P.S. 214, we help students succeed by offering a challenging curriculum based on student interests and a distinctive school culture based on high expectations. Students’ character development is fostered through a solid advisory program, peer mediation program, active student action committee, and rich service learning opportunities. Through the Engrade online program and quarterly progress reports, we strive to keep parents up-to-date with students’ progress. P.S. 214 was one of the proud winners of a Campaign for Middle School Success improvement grant. Eighth graders have the opportunity to enjoy a full day filled with entertainment at the Great Adventures Amusement Park as part of senior activities. We received the distinction as one of the top five most improved mathematics schools in the Bronx by the Daily News (June 3, 2009), and were recognized by the NYC Department of Education as a model school for creating a pipeline and training site for NYC teacher apprentices.

We provide a wide range of instructional programs, including blended instruction. We are a technology-based school with SMART Boards in every classroom and laptops in every classroom. In partnership with our community-based organization, Children’s Aid Society, we offer an advisory program to support students’ social-emotional growth embedded into the school day and a free after-school program five days per week.

At ACCIÓN Academy, we have a unique opportunity to provide an individualized, warm, and caring environment for our students because our school is just the right size. Serving an average of only 155 students per year, ACCIÓN is less than one-third the size of the average middle school in New York. This means that our compassionate veteran teachers can form meaningful relationships with students and parents on the journey towards success. We can give each child our full attention to ensure they receive whatever services, programs, or activities they need to grow. ACCIÓN stands for “Achievement, Community, Consciousness, Integrity, Opportunity Now!” Our family-oriented school community fosters the highest levels of achievement, activism, and service. Our Student Government helps to influence our school’s decisions. Our PHIPPS after-school program provides a huge variety of activities—including a robotics team—along with offering supportive homework help and mentoring.

As a 6-12th grade school, our mission at the Urban Assembly School for Wildlife Conservation is to engage students in a challenging curriculum centered on wildlife conservation and cultivating life skills so that every graduate is ready for success in college, exposed to the wonders of the natural world, and an independent adult who acts respectfully with regard to his or her community. Our students make significant academic gains and develop a clear sense of personal purpose to affect positive change. Parents appreciate our partnerships with the Bronx Zoo and Phipps Community Development Corporation, which enable us to engage children in a challenging curriculum that has science as part of our core subjects. The Bronx Zoo serves as our extended classroom, and its scientists, educators, and other staff serve as mentors and educators for our students. High school-aged students have internships and seasonal employment at the Bronx Zoo.

We have built a strong sense of community within a school culture that focuses on high expectations, academic challenges, and character development. Students are supported by all Emolior Academy teachers, staff, and community with the understanding that they are being prepared for success in college and beyond. Parents are encouraged to share in our students' learning, as well as contribute ideas that will lead to a more effective learning environment. Through school events and channels of communication, parents are an important part of our overall community. Students participate in an advisory group of 12-15 members, participate in a yearly college visit, and a yearly college exit project which focuses on college entrance and preparation. Students must complete three community service learning projects as a graduation requirement.

Entrada Academy strives to continue to help students grow academically, socially, and emotionally. We assess students at the beginning of the school year to determine where students are, and work throughout the school year to develop skills and strategies that will help students prepare for high school, college, and beyond. We have a guidance team that works with students by providing them with opportunities to participate in individual and small group sessions. We believe all students have the potential to learn and we provide avenues through our PBIS program to recognize and highlight positive behavior and schoolwork.

Our approach to education is identified by creativity, collaboration, and community. Students engage in problem-based learning in math, hands-on activities in our state-of-the-art science lab, presenting and justifying claims in social studies, and using the Teacher’s College Writers’ Workshop in ELA. Our partnership with Lincoln Center exposes our students to the arts and gives our community access to Lincoln Center as well as free shows at our school by world renowned performers. We partner with Children’s Aid Society to offer a comprehensive approach to education for the benefit of our students and their families. We will identify the strengths and needs of each student, extend school hours to expand learning time, work with our students to become more college and career ready, and engage families in the educational experience. We are also the recipient of a 21st Century Grant, which brings in multiple partners focused on science, healthy lifestyles, and character development.

Our students like the security and stability of the School of Leadership Development. The relationships they build with teachers and staff are invaluable. Our students also enjoy being challenged academically and having many extracurricular activities. We invite our parents to become a part of their children’s education by having an open door policy, as well as providing them with contacts to outside agencies that can assist them with social and emotional supports for their children and family.

Students love our small class sizes and the individualized support they receive in every class. All students have the opportunity to accelerate their progress through middle school and high school classes using our mastery-based course design and a variety of online learning options. Daily after-school support classes, in all subjects, help students understand course expectations, complete assignments, and practice necessary academic skills. Talent development courses in the art, music, dance, theater, and athletics allow students to explore non-academic interests throughout the school day. Regular group advisory sessions, after-school activities, and internships offer the chance for students to develop leadership skills, get to know their peers, explore careers, and have fun.

The Mosholu Parkway (J.H.S. 80) | 10X080

J.H.S 80 is centered on the belief that regardless of the student’s background experiences, every student can learn and perform at optimal levels. We achieve communal excellence through the engagement and contributions of every member. We ensure that students feel physically and emotionally safe, as that is necessary for learning. We have an advisory curriculum based on social and emotional development, communication, and leadership taught by every teacher. Each teacher supports up to 15 students, while serving as the liaison to their families. This instructional model is learner-centered and its curriculum is designed around performance tasks. Our belief is that students learn best when they apply their understanding to culturally, personally, and immediately relevant tasks. Our teachers make explicit connections across content areas and engage students in interdisciplinary projects. All lessons have tiered tasks, which culminate with a performance task at the end of each unit.

We believe students need the time to practice basic skills, benefit from opportunities to discuss content with their peers, learn when instruction is scaffolded, and take ownership of their learning when they are part of the decision-making process.

The Institute for Collaborative Education (I.C.E.) is a small, community-focused school where the needs and academic interests of our students come first. Teachers utilize a project-based curriculum that emphasizes student-centered inquiry, forming substantive arguments, written and oral presentations, and the active and ongoing exchange of ideas. At I.C.E. we encourage students to develop their own points of view and practice the intellectual disciplines of conducting formal research and defending complex academic arguments.

The Anderson Middle School (AMS) provides a judicious combination of an accelerated and enriched curriculum for the distinct needs of gifted learners. Our upper grades are fully integrated within our highly successful K-8 school. With only two classes per grade, the relationship between students and teachers is personal and supportive. This smaller population fosters a strong sense of community. Guided by educators who recognize the needs of children with outstanding intellectual potential, we provide intimate, differentiated, and departmentalized instruction that encourages critical thinking, creative problem solving, divergent thinking, research, independent study, collaboration, and self-evaluation. Parental involvement and support sustains the spirit and growth of AMS. The Anderson School seeks a diverse student population, including ICT students, and welcomes applications from across the five boroughs. The mission of the Special Music School is to teach musically gifted children through highly structured instrumental training and a standards-based academic program. The school prepares students for professional music careers while recognizing that not every student will choose such a career. The underlying philosophy of the Special Music School is the belief that music education for gifted pupils requires extensive opportunities to work one-to-one with an outstanding instrumental faculty, a structured and sequential music curriculum, opportunities to perform before audiences, and interaction between general academics and musical studies. Our goal is to see each child reach his or her academic and musical potential. Our vision is that all students will become lifelong learners and critical thinkers in our caring and respectful learning environment. We encourage parental involvement in all aspects of the school.

We offer an arts-enriched school environment. We want our students to see themselves as mathematicians, so we foster deep comprehension of math concepts by helping our students acquire habits of mind: persisting, questioning, communicating with precision and clarity, thinking flexibly, listening with understanding/empathy, and thinking interdependently. BSI students read diverse content and their writing includes feature articles, informational texts, comic books, interviews, persuasive essays, literary analysis, and literary criticism. We teach our students to engage technology, to think critically about what they see, and to be thoughtful about how they use technology to express their thoughts and ideas. Parents play a crucial role in both the daily life and long-term growth of BSI. Through a vital home/school connection, we build a learning community based on respect and cooperation.

Those who are successful in modern workplaces know how to ask the right questions—they are critical thinkers and researchers, strong problem solvers, and reflective practitioners. Teachers facilitate learning by setting up the classroom for students to engage with inquiry-based activities. For example, sixth grade students work in groups to answer the question, “How can we design water filters that filter out harmful substances, are cost effective, and can be built in a classroom?” Students research effective water filters, sketch out designs, build these designs, test designs, and, finally, redesign. Q300 differentiates itself by challenging students to develop these inquiry skills in all core subjects, as well as in engineering, computer science, the arts, and Spanish. We encourage students who may be considered “twice exceptional” to apply for we have academic and social/emotional supports in place to effectively meet their needs.
