- ➔ More information about specific session locations will be available at the time of registration.

*The New Hire Fair is designed for new teachers to interact with DOE and UFT representatives for more information on what it means to be a teacher in NYC public schools. New teachers will be able to get their HR questions answered, learn about professional development opportunities, talk to the UFT, and network with other new teachers from across the city. New Hire Fair attendees will receive a “swag bag!”
